

CAPT. CROCKETT GIVES HIMSELF UP

Denies Almost in Toto the Tales of Cruelty to the Men on His Oyster Boat.

HE IS NOT MUCH ALARMED

The Rescued Men Draw One Dollar a Day for Witness Fees.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., November 13.—Andrew A. Crockett, master of the oyster boat Whiting, from which Deputy United States Marshals West and Miller, on Sunday afternoon, rescued nine Itchenham men, who claim that they have been terribly mistreated, came to Norfolk this morning and surrendered himself to the marshals. Crockett is charged with keeping the men aboard his boat against their will.

He will not be given a preliminary hearing before a United States commissioner, but will be presented directly to the Federal grand jury, which is now in session.

Crockett does not appear to be a slave driver, but to be a firm and intelligent man of between thirty and forty-five years of age, and quite respectable in appearance. He is not disinclined to discuss his case, but does not appear to be much alarmed over the charges that the men have made against him.

The rescued men were paid their traveling expenses and witness fees this morning. They will continue to draw witness fees of $1 a day as long as they are held as witnesses against Crockett, and when released will be sent back to Richmond.

Accompanying the oyster master to Norfolk were Captain J. F. Crockett, of the schooner-dredges Elia Flarity and T. A. Crockett, of T. A. Crockett & Co., commodity merchants at Tangle Island.

Captain Crockett denied almost in toto all the charges brought by the crew, as told yesterday. He said it was true the men had to work hard, but denied that they were put to work at 2 A. M. and kept at work until 11 P. M., as the men claimed.

He said the men had the same to eat on the Whiting that he had, and that they were given canned corn, tomatoes, meat, potatoes, beans and bread.

Captain Crockett, as an offer to the $25 in wages claimed by each man, presented bills ranging from $10 to $120 for supplies furnished the men from T. A. Crockett & Co.'s commissary.

Attorney John W. Oast, Jr., in whose hands the men yesterday placed their claims, went with Captain Crockett to the jail and there saw the men this morning. They were taken individually and the supply items with which they were charged were read to them. Each man said he had gotten all things mentioned and agreed to the price opposite each article. They agreed to a deduction of the respective amounts from the $25 totals, and Captain Crockett said the balances would be paid over to Attorney Oast for the men. Attorney Oast told the men he would deliver the money to them as soon as it was turned over to him. The articles enumerated in the credit bills held by Captain Crockett against the men, included $4 each for Lambert Rubber Company snap boots, except the cook, Murphy, who had no such charge against him, and such items as one cent and ten cents for writing paper, $1 each for "faced-lined" underwear, ten, twenty and forty-five cents for tobacco and the like, including oil skins, etc., used at their work.

The men said they had shoes, etc., when they went aboard the Whiting, and supposed necessary working clothes would be furnished them without cost, but they made no objection to the deductions, according to Captain Crockett's claims, as read to them by their attorney, Mr. Oast.

ELEGANT HOME WEDDING

Miss Mabel Gwendolyn Becomes the Bride of Mr. E. P. Hopkins.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NEAR KESWICK, VA., November 13.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Williams was the scene of a beautiful marriage last Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, when their eldest daughter, Mabel Gwendolyn, became the bride of Mr. E. P. Hopkins, a promising young business man of the firm of Barker & Jennings, of Lynchburg. Only the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties were present. The color scheme was pink and green. The parlor was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums and evergreens. The altarpiece where the bride and groom stood for the blessing, was most tastefully arranged with an exquisite wedding altar.

As the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march pealed forth from the skilled fingers of Miss Grace Williams, cousin of the bride, the bride and groom entered. First came the bridesmaids, Misses Bessie and Ethelyn Williams, sisters of the bride, attired in white, with pink and green ribbons, and carrying bouquets of pink carnations, followed by the sweet and lovely bride on the arm of her father. She was handsomely gowned in a traveling suit of grey, with hat and gloves to match, wearing diamonds, gift of the groom, and carrying a shower bouquet of white carnations and maiden-hair ferns. The groom, escorted from the right, accompanied by his best man and cousin, Mr. Edward Parrott, of Charlottesville. They were met at the altar by the officiating minister, Rev. John B. Turpin, of Charlottesville, whose ceremony was beautiful and impressive.

The father of the bride, Lieutenant G. L. Williams, was a gallant officer of the famous Company K, formerly known as the Albemarle Light Horse. The groom's father, Mr. J. S. Hopkins, was also a brave soldier and a member of the same company, and, like the lieutenant, is justly proud of the cross of honor he wears, conferred upon them by the Daughters of the Confederacy. The presents were both numerous and handsome. After a delightful breakfast, served in old Virginia style, the bridal party drove to Charlottesville and boarded the train for Southern points. They will make their home in the Hill City.

THE BIG DAM READY FOR USE

Three-Quarters of a Million Being Spent Upon the Plan.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, VA., November 13.—Although the contract called for the installation of the system last May, there has been a faint hope that the new water system for Lynchburg will be in full operation before the early spring of the coming year. It is feared that the cold weather will set in before the work is completed, and in this event it will necessitate a cessation of all work until early spring.

There are only a few miles of pipe to be constructed, and the immense dam has been built with water, having been completed two months ago. The security of labor is given as the chief cause for the delay on the pipe line.

SUPREME COURT CASES

Will Clear the Calendar of Twelfth District Cases This Week.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., November 13.—A rather remarkable turn has developed in a recent case in the Supreme Court of North Carolina. The case, known as Shaw vs. Railroad, from Mecklenburg, who single station residence service here from $5 per year to $24 per year. Seventy odd of the 115 subscribers to this class of service had signed the new contracts providing the increase and some of those remaining valued a risk to that extent that the matter came to the attention of General Manager W. T. Gentry at Atlanta, and he makes the announcement that the proposition to raise the rate was all a mistake, due to an inadvertence in the contract department of the Bell Company.

So all who have signed the new contracts will be released, and the rates will go back to the original charge of $5.

A number of stations which had been taken out because the subscribers refused to sign the new contracts will be re-installed at the old rental.

Twelfth District cases on appeal were called for argument in the Supreme Court this morning. It will probably require until Thursday to complete the calendar, which includes the following cases: Shaw vs. Railroad, from Mecklenburg; Withkowsky Land Case, Mecklenburg; Roberts vs. Railroad, Mecklenburg; Holmes vs. Railroad, Mecklenburg; Crighton vs. Water-Works, Mecklenburg; Miller vs. Railroad, Mecklenburg; Shaw vs. Manufacturing Company, Mecklenburg; Mining Company vs. Cotton Mills, Gastonia; Beas vs. Advertiser, Lincoln; Shells vs. Will Case, Lincoln; Milling Company vs. Cotrain, Cabarrus.

HANDS RAW WITH TERRIBLE ECZEMA

Suffered for Ten Years—Spreading to Body and Limbs Despite Efforts of Three Doctors—Another Remarkable and Speedy

CURE BY THE CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I had eczema on my hands for ten years. At first it would break out only in winter. Then it finally came to stay. I had three good doctors to do all they could, but none of them did any good. I then used one box of Cuticura Ointment and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent and was completely cured. My hands were raw all over, inside and out, and the eczema was spreading all over my body and limbs. Before I had used one bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, together with the Ointment, my sores were nearly healed over, and by the time I had used the third bottle, I was entirely well. I had a good appetite and was free from any skin or blood disease. I would honestly advise them to get the Cuticura Remedies and get well quicker than all the doctors in the State can cure you." Mrs. M. E. Falin, May 19, 1905. Speers Ferry, Va.

CURED OF ITCHING HUMOR
